MULTILINGUAL WEBSITES

Have you ever thought about having your web pages translated into other languages? How would that improve the public perception of your company, when your clients can read about your organisation, its products and services in their own language?

WebTran is your answer. It's a professional service launched by Prestige to make your website truly multilingual.

We are specialists in website translation and localisation. We translate and lay out your web pages to perfectly mirror your English pages in real text (not images of text).

See for Yourself – WebTran!
